COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

CRIMINAL APPEALS

AT AUSTIN, TEXAS

STATE'S MOTION TO FILE AMENDED BRIEF

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

Now comes the State of Texas, Appellee in the above-styled and -numbered cause, and moves the Court to allow the filing of Appellee's amended brief, and for good cause would show the following:

I.

I filed the Brief for the State in this case on the night of December 19, 2016, after the State's motion for extension was granted in part. As mentioned in that State's motion for extension, I had several other projects in the office – including assisting with mandamus petitions and other pressing matters – which made it difficult to complete the State's brief in this case by the deadline. Although I did submit said brief within the deadline, in preparing to submit 10 paper copies to the Court, I noticed a few typos I would like to correct. Accordingly – and within the three-day period to send said 10 copies – the State respectfully requests that the Court allow the filing of its amended brief which includes a few non-substantive corrections. The State will immediately send 10 copies – within the original three-day window – so there will be no delay from the granting of the instant motion.

II. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the State's counsel respectfully prays that the Court accept and allow the filing of the State's amended brief. This extension is not requested for purposes of delay but so that justice may be done.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Joshua D. Presley
